Golden autumn days for planting
 Stored up beauty in our gardens,
 Then, when by nature's magic,
 Cradled seeds and bulbs are tended,
 Softly hushed by wind and rain,
 Gently coaxed by warming sun,
 Kissed by early morning dewdrops,
 The modest and the flaunting flowers
 Bring gay music to our hearts.

Dear Patron Friends:

As we greet you and again invite you to join us in friendship through flowers, we feel indeed fortunate to be living in the United States. Here we are able to look ahead, to plan for the future, anticipating with the first bright days of spring a lovely garden or rockery. Take advantage of an opportunity available to few people in the world today, other than ourselves, and plan now for an early display of glory from seeds and bulbs.

Due to distressing circumstances abroad, we have been unable to secure our usual supply of Holland bulbs. However, we have made every effort to assemble all of the more worthwhile American-grown stock and make it available for your pleasure at Park's famous "Best for Less" prices. Our stock is all of the highest quality, clean and healthy, guaranteed to the full extent of the purchase price.

All orders sent prepaid. Seeds will be shipped at once, and early bulb orders will be acknowledged and shipped promptly as soon as the stock is ready.

We anticipate hearing from you and assure you that your orders will have our careful attention.

Yours for more beautiful gardens,

NARCISSUS (Daffodils)

Park's Choice Collection

This versatile, enchanting family of flowers, so easily adaptable to the garden or indoor culture, is early flowering, hardy, fragrant, useful, and beautiful. Botanically classed as Narcissus, many are commonly called Daffodils. The Polyanthus or Paperwhites may be grown in bowls of water with stones to give the bulbs stability. For indoor winter flowering, 5 to 6 bulbs of any variety planted in a pot of well drained good garden soil and kept in a cool dry place until roots form, will bloom earlier than when planted in the garden bed or border. Several plantings will give blooms over a longer period. For naturalizing in the garden, place in sunny situation, in good garden soil 1 1-2 times the length of bulb.

THE EMPEROR

I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vale and hills
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host of golden daffodils,
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.
—Wordsworth.

Giant Trumpet Narcissus

King Alfred. Among the handsomest, most popular and finest of Daffodils. Golden trumpet and perianth with trumpet elegantly frilled. 15c each; 3 for 35c; 12 for $1.30.

Robert Sydenham. A consistent prize winner. The frilled golden yellow trumpet outlined against the less brilliant symmetrical soft sulphur-yellow perianth, together with the long stems and fine foliage, give an impression of rugged proportionate beauty which is unforgettable. Each 20c; 3 for 50c; 12 for $1.60.

Mrs. E. H. Krelage (White King Alfred). Excellent grower, long stems, graceful flower with white perianth and ivory reflexed trumpet. Outstanding and beautiful. Each 15c; 3 for 40c; 12 for $1.50.

ALSTROEMERIA Aurantiaca—Peruvian Lilies

Although this South American member of the Amaryllis family is little known on our continent, it is well worthy of a space in your garden. The lovely Peruvian Lily produces clusters of yellow, trumpet-like flowers, on two-foot stems. It is hardy as far north as Boston and makes a good pot plant for home or conservatory in colder sections. This little cup-shaped flower of delicate shade, with an eye of a brighter, contrasting yet blending color, poised atop a gracefully slender, slightly curving stem, gives a picture difficult to describe. They are not of easiest culture, however, anyone may grow them with a little care. Plant the bulbs twice their depth in deep, well drained, gritty soil, just before the ground freezes, and mulch them to a depth of several inches with leaves or straw to prevent alternate freezing and thawing. You will be well rewarded in May or June when the little buds burst forth into bloom. We can supply you with the colors: Orange, Yellow, Lilac, at 3 for 25c; 6 for 40c; 12 for 70c.

LEUCOJUM VERNUM (Spring Snowflake or St. Agnes Flower). A member of the Lily family, these bulbous plants produce their pendant white flowers a few weeks after the early Snowdrops. Of easy culture, the bulbs should be set 3 inches deep in well-drained, sunny border or rockery pocket. In mild sections they need no protection, however a slight winter covering in the north is advisable. Bulbs may be left undisturbed for years. 3 for 15c; 12 for 50c.

LEUCOCORYNE Ixioides Odorata (Glory of the Sun). Flowers delicate blue shading to white are produced in graceful umbels on wiry 1 1-2 ft. stems. Their delightfully intangible heliotrope fragrance, and their long lasting quality make this a most desirable flower for use in the home or outside in the southern states. Prefers a light, rich soil and 50-60 degrees F. temp. Bulbs 10c each, 3 for 25c.

BRODIAEA Laxa—Triplet Lily. Known also as TRITELEIA Laxa, this native California flower is good for rock garden or in the south for naturalizing. Although the grass-like foliage is commonplace, the great clusters of lavender blue flowers are really striking on their 15-inch to 20-inch stems. A good keeper either on the plant or when cut. It requires a light sandy soil with very good drainage and a sunny location. Plant 2 1-2 inches deep before the ground freezes, and mulch with well rotted manure. Hardy in the south.

Plant bulbs 2 inches deep. 3 for 15c, 12 for 50c, 100 for $3.75.

OXALIS

Fine for winter pots or hanging baskets. Plant 1 inch deep in a porous soil composed of equal parts leaf-mold, loam and sand. Liquid manure for watering when plants are ready to flower is very helpful. Set or hang in sunny window.

ANNUALS FOR FALL SOWING

Hardy annuals, which may be planted in fall, will bloom much earlier than those grown from spring sown seed. The purpose in fall planting is not to germinate the seed in autumn, but to get the seed in place and ready to grow with the first favorable weather of spring. Thus the seed should be sown slightly deeper than in spring (for example: Plant sweet peas 4 to 6 in. deep). After the soil freezes, a protecting mulch should be applied. Following are varieties of hardy annuals we recommend for fall sowing.
